A BRIEF HISTORY

Triyuginarayan Temple, nestled in the scenic Himalayas of Rudraprayag, Uttarakhand, is an ancient temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu. According to Hindu mythology, it is the sacred site where Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati were married. The temple is famous for its Akhand Dhuni, an eternal flame believed to have been burning since their divine wedding. Surrounded by breathtaking mountain views, this spiritually significant temple is a revered pilgrimage site and a popular destination for sacred weddings.

Celebrate your sacred wedding at Triyuginarayan Temple with Amritara Sunninn . We offer comfortable accommodation, customised dining options, function spaces, cultural evenings, DJ entertainment, and bonfires.
