A BRIEF HISTORY

Located in Kaithi, approximately 30 km from Varanasi, Shri Markandey Mahadev Temple is a revered shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva. Associated with Sage Markandeya and the Markandeya Purana, the temple is believed to hold spiritual significance equivalent to the Dwadash Jyotirlingas. Also known as the Mahamrityunjaya Temple, it attracts devotees seeking blessings for health, longevity, and prosperity. After performing sacred rituals at the temple, devotees can enjoy a serene boat ride along the Ganga–Gomti Sangam, surrounded by the spiritual beauty and tranquillity of the rivers.

Celebrate your sacred wedding at Amritara The Samagam, Kaithi, Varanasi. We offer comfortable accommodation, customised dining, a 6,000 sq. ft. open event space, and arrangements for wedding celebrations and pre-wedding ceremonies.
